

Report on Inaugural Ceremony of Jnana Yagna at Chinmaya Prabha

Upon the humble invitation of the students of Vedanta at Chinmaya Prabha, Bhimavaram, Pujya Acharya Sri Prem Siddharth commenced the 9-day long Jnana Yagnam on the 9th of November 2010. His arrival at Chinmaya Prabha in the morning (of 9th Nov) ushered a celebratory mood amongst the Sadhakas eager to seek his blessings and absorb the Teaching.

That evening, with the blessings of Swami Chinmayananda and in the benign presence of Pujya Acharya, the inaugural ceremony of the Jnana Yagnam commenced with Jyothi Prajwalanam performed by Pujya Acharya and the eminent members decorating the dais.

Sri Bonda Subba Rao, the chairperson of Chinmaya Prabha offered his praise to Pujya Gurudev, paying his tributes to the inimitable style in which Pujya Acharya revealed the knowledge of highly technical scriptures and related this Vedic wisdom to our lives – thus assisting us in discovering the happiness hidden behind the folds of Samsara.

Disciples chanted prayers to Lord Sri Dakshina Murthy to celebrate the glory of Ishwara who blessed them with the opportunity to pursue the study Vedanta under the tutelage of a competent Acharya.

Seeing the splendor of Pujya Acharya's knowledge, some were reminded of Swami Chinmayananda's energetic presence while many were reminiscent of the earlier Jnana Yagnam conducted by Pujya Acharya at Chinmaya Prabha, where he revealed the essence of Sadhana Panchakam and Bhaja Govindam.

The ceremony was concluded with the disciples offering prayers to Ishwara for the Nirvighna Parisamapthi of the Jnana Yagnam. The Jnana Yagna continues till 17th Nov. More in the following mail.
